5. Declaration

You will understand the great responsibility involved in working with children and young people and the need to ensure their safety.

You are therefore asked to read and sign the following declaration:

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence or been cautioned by the police or bound over to keep the peace? Yes / No.

Have you ever been held liable by a court for a civil wrong or had an order made against you by a matrimonial or family court? Yes / No.

Has your conduct ever caused or been likely to cause harm to a child or put a child at risk, or have these things ever been alleged? Yes / No.

(This question is asking whether you have ever been the subject of an official investigation into allegations of child abuse).

If the answer to any of these questions is 'Yes', please indicate what was the nature of the offence or allegation on a separate sheet of paper attached to this form.

All convictions must be disclosed, as the provision of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 does not apply.

This declaration is used by many organisations and churches and is in accordance with Central Government Recommendations in the publication Safe from Harm.

6. Referees
